

Press Release

CT machine, installed in 2022, remains functional and continues to support diagnostic services. Imaging investigations are undertaken regularly on the basis of clinical assessment, specialist advice, patient-safety considerations and prescribed medical protocols. The use of a particular imaging procedure should be viewed within its clinical context and should not be interpreted, unnecessarily.

PIMS Administration